

Ljuskön Cabins

Ljuskön in the St: Anna archipelago is a paradise for families and sports anglers alike. Not only is there lots of pike, pikeperch, perch and sea trout. There is a large number of large white fish. The St: Anna archipelago is highly varied, offering excellent fishing throughout the entire season, with pike at its best in spring and autumn. Thanks to the great variation there are always places with lots of fish regardless of weather and wind. Pike exceeding 100 cm are rather common and every year sees pikeperch over 100 cm long. Our cabins have lovely, private settings and come in different sizes and prices.

Season

We are open from late April to mid-October. Best fishing terms; Pike – from late April to midsummer, plus September-October. Pikeperch and perch – from May to September, with peak in May-June. Sea trout – in May and October.

Species & Records
